Do an experiment for yourself. Stop random people in the streets or wherever you are and ask them a simple question- Who killed JFK? I don't know what the results of your survey will produce but I can guarantee one thing for sure, you are going to get a variety of answers. There's no telling how many answers you will get, four, five even ten different answers maybe? And that's the whole point when you consider the role of US Intelligence and the process of government propaganda that is always used to hide US government crimes and divert attention elsewhere.

Like the JFK assassination, the crimes of September 11, 2001 is a text book example of a State sponsor false flag followed by years of alternate theories, deliberate confusion and now a carefully planned agenda to blame other countries for this crime which was planned and orchestrated by our own US government with the cooperation and full participation, mind you, of elements in several countries including Saudi Arabia and others.

I keep asking myself why and how do genuine truth seekers continue to fall for repeated government engineered Intelligence propaganda when they know full well how this works given the historic examples we can observe. In case you still don't know how it works, here is the sequence.

- 1- Government stages an event for political reasons known as a false flag operation.
- 2- Government blames an enemy patsy of choice to point blame away from the true conspirators. (eg Lee Harvey Oswald, Bin Laden, Al Qaeda etc)
- 3- Government demonizes those searching for truth with names. (eg “conspiracy theorists”, “lunatics”, today we have “domestic extremist”)
- 4- Government spends lots of money and resources to create alternate theories and point the finger at new culprits to confuse those looking for truth and create “cognitive diversity”.

Where have we heard the term “cognitive diversity” before? It was Obama's Information Czar Cass Sunstein who stated in his 2008 paper “Conspiracy Theories” that the 9/11 Truth movement needed to be cognitively infiltrated in order to create “cognitive diversity”. That's right. You heard that correctly. Sunstein was clear about his intentions to diversify the opinions and viewpoints INSIDE of the Truth movement to get them fighting over different theories and culprits. Even Salon, which is one of the primary voices of the control system today posted back in 2010 in an article written by Glenn Greenwald.

Sunstein advocates that the Government's stealth infiltration should be accomplished by sending covert agents into "chat rooms, online social networks, or even real-space groups." He also proposes that the Government make secret payments to so-called "independent" credible voices to bolster the Government's messaging (on the ground that those who don't believe government sources will be more inclined to listen to those who appear independent while secretly acting on behalf of the Government). This program would target those advocating false "conspiracy theories," which they define to mean: "an attempt to explain an event or practice by reference to the machinations of powerful people, who have also managed to conceal their role."

Despite this clearly documented intent to infiltrate local truth seeking groups and online blogs and social networks and chat rooms with alternate theories and propaganda for the purposes of specifically pointing the finger away from the US government, far too many truth seekers apparently think that Sunstein was either joking or speaking metaphorically. I assure readers he was not. He was telling you what the plans were from the States point of view at the time, and they have delivered on that promise very clearly.

This brings us to the "Saudi Arabia did 9/11" propaganda so called "28 pages" being waved at the masses for years now, which by the way in itself is an effective strategic marketing tactic to peak your curiosity. The controllers have been waving the "28 pages" psyop papers for years on end even doubling up on their psychological tactics by having Obama recently appear as though he doesn't want the 28 pages to be released. The cat and mouse game playing out for years screams of obvious Intelligence games.

For anyone who thinks this is their only game of cognitive diversity, think again. I have been very vocal and often times feel alone in my argument that the "only Israel did it" movement is a psychological operation on the Truth movement as well and one need look no further than Cass Sunstein's paper to see how. Like the known role of Saudi Arabia, the known role of Israel and the Mossad on 9/11, or for that matter the known role of Pakistan, those pushing these movements seek to convince you that 9/11 was about a singular mission by a singular country. This is classic Sunstein cognitive infiltration tactic using things that are partially true to divert the blame of 9/11 away from the US government and create division within the movement.

Incidentally, I recently presented a lecture to a group in Los Angeles on how in the case of Israel, the Israeli so called "Greater Israel" theme taken from the Oded Yinon "paper" and the "Clean break" document written by the US for Israel in 1996 among other elements are being used as a dangerous propaganda weapon to be potentially turned against all truth seekers in a Minority Report style context which now exists within the powerful control grid that is already formed here in the US. In this grid which is forming by the day, thanks to government surveillance and information sharing, anyone can be retroactively accused of hate speech or of being radical or an "extremist". In addition to all of this, the movement to blame only Israel for 9/11 is a dead end street leaving the activist with not only without concrete options for solutions but presents essentially an abstract and almost invisible enemy to fight here in the US rendering the activist powerless.

The Israeli (and Saudi) role often spoken about by individuals like Christopher Bollyn, (who I personally confronted several years ago and asked him pointedly (paraphrasing) “are you saying that only Israel did 9/11 or that 9/11 was an Israeli operation only?” Bollyn’s answer? No!) is being used by specific individuals to turn the attention and blame for all of 9/11 on only Israel and these trolls will flat out tell you that the role played by Bush, Cheney, Rumsfeld and their Neocons, the CIA, FBI, Pentagon, US military and so on are all unproven or “lies” told to us by “Loose Change” or “Alex Jones”, “David Ray Griffin”, “Webster Tarpley” and many others. As anyone can clearly see, in order to push this radical movement they need to demonize essentially the entire movement and label all of us as naive or even worse, we are all “disinformation agents” ourselves. Is anyone falling for this?

So now as I read on about the “28 pages” I’m reminded how cognitive diversity is the goal. As I shared with a group a few months back, the goal is to split the 9/11 truth movement into as many fragments as possible the same way the Israeli “Greater Israel” and the Neocon PNAC plans called for breaking up the Middle East neighboring countries and other regions of the world respectively, into fragmented smaller regions which we’ve been seeing with the role of ISIS in the region.

Divide and conquer is a strategy that has been around for a very long time. It’s not a new thing by any means. And getting people to fall for a patsy and diverting their attention away from the main culprit is also an old tactic that even today we see truth seekers falling for.

The obvious 28 page psyop at most will probably suggest that Saudi Arabia at least partially funded 9/11 and provided the “terrorists” (thus supporting the official story as well). Should they go all the way and say that only Saudi Arabia was involved it will be that much less believable to the average truth seeker.

While it is not wrong, in fact it is more accurate to say that 9/11 was a US-Israeli job or a US-Israeli-Saudi job, many of those deeply invested in the “official story”, the “Saudi’s did it” or the “Israel did it” movement won’t give you that at all. They will declare “Bush and Cheney didn’t do it” and that’s the red flag. These are all repeated Intelligence tactics designed to not only point the blame away from the US government but to create the ideal Cass Sunstein style cognitive diversity and division within the movement.

The take home message is that, no matter how juicy the information is, we need to view 9/11 only in the context of the bigger picture and with a clear mind and not fall for new theories that seek to point exclusively to other countries outside of the US as the primary culprit.

Criminal elements within our own government were factually and criminally involved in 9/11 and this criminal element prefers you blame other countries that cooperated so that they don’t ever go to jail or worse. More important, realize that given the enormous Zionist element in our government the US and Israel-Zionist regime are one and the same. They are inseparable and they’ve been working together for very long. See how the 9-11 style bombing of the USS Liberty by the US-Israeli complex left the ship and its crew alone to sink and die as per the stand down orders out of Lyndon Johnson’s mouth.

The difference between the Saudi Arabia 28 pages and the claim that only Israel did 9/11 is that the US-Saudi relationship unlike the Israeli relationship is fragile and separable. This is why the Saudis are promising to sell off all US assets if the pages are released. In this sense the two stories (Saudi and Israeli role on 9/11) are tools to help us appreciate the depth and quality of the relationship between cooperative countries involved in 9/11 and they can be tools to help us realize how the ruling elite use nation states to get the job done.

So whether it's the USS Liberty attacks, the president John F Kennedy assassination, the Robert Kennedy assassination, the WTC bombing in 1993, the Oklahoma City bombing, 9/11, Boston bombing, Sandy Hook or any other "event" orchestrated by elements in our own government, let's stay focused and clear as to how this works. And let's also recognize how the post-event propaganda works and what is its intention. After all, if we ignore this Intelligence process we'll never get enough people to stand for the Truth because we'll be too divided and too distracted with smaller less relevant pieces of (sometimes truthful) information to argue about and that is exactly what the controllers want. Divide and conquer!
